Register 3,256 By Noon

Number of Men In County Eligible
For Fourth Draft
Exceeds Estimates

Registration of men in Pettis county in the 45-64 age group has exceeded early estimates of a 3,000 total with 3,256 registered by noon today after 415 men had signed during the morning.

Registration will continue until 9 o'clock tonight at the Pettis county court house, and the final total probably will surpass the previous draft registrations here.

The fourth draft gives a cross-section of men who will form a great bloc for non-combatant participation in the nation's war effort. Men registering in this age group are not liable for military service under the present selective service program, and there will be no national lottery.

They will be sent occupational questionnaires, with current regulations calling for their classification into occupational skills or executive experience that may be utilized to advance the war program.

Veterans Of Other Wars

Some of the men registered are veterans of the Spanish-American war, and many had served the United States in World War I.

Eagerness to register has been noted in this bulwark of non-military man-power, and there has been a steady line-up of men at the court house since the opening of the registration Thursday morning.

Those who fail to register are subject to a maximum penalty of five years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

Women who served as registrars today are Mrs. Homer Hall, Mrs. Lon Leslie, Mrs. Fred Curtis, Mrs. Harry Sammons, Mrs. E. F. Winfrey, Miss Erna Ann McClure, Mrs. Irene Morris, Mrs. Pat Kidd, Mrs. Mildred M. Deck, Mrs. D. C. Davis, Mrs. Richard E. Wood, Mrs. H. F. Rapp, Mrs. A. E. Shihb, Mrs. Fannie Arbuckle, Miss Lelia Shortridge, Mrs. C. A. Wright, Mrs. J. D. Shoemaker, Mrs. E. W. Richardson, Mrs. J. C. Griffin, Mrs. P. W. Keyes, Miss June Newland, Mrs. Mae Newland, Mrs. J. B. Bailey, Mrs. George Morrison, Mrs. J. W. Atkinson and Mrs. Claude Brown.

Legionnaires who assisted in keeping the lines in order are Carl Urban, Herman Myers and Harvey Dow.

Resume Work At Wentzville

ST. LOUIS, April 27.—(AP)—Cleanup work preparatory to the resumption of construction of the Wentzville defense housing project—held up by a CIO-AFL labor dispute since March 10—began at noon today, without trouble.

Gordon W. Webb of Kansas City, contractors' representative, said he expected to have the site ready for actual construction by AFL workers Wednesday.

At Jefferson City, Gov. Forrest C. Donnell said he would not declare martial law at the project site—scene of union violence—as he had threatened, but Col. Ethan A. Shepley, first regiment commander of the Missouri state guard, was an observer.

The Farm Security Administration halted construction work on 100 prefabricated houses for TNT plant workers after a mass demonstration by AFL building trade unionists. The AFL protested the use of CIO workmen on the grounds a stabilizing agreement had signed with the federal government gave it closed shop rights on government construction in return for overtime pay concessions and a no-strike pledge.

Webb said AFL workmen will be used to complete the project, in accordance with a national housing authority ruling.

Hitler Asks For And Gets New Authority

Action Arouses
Allies' Hope That
He Is Desperate

LONDON, April 27.—(AP)—Adolf Hitler made himself the supreme master of Germany yesterday, with fiat power even above his own Nazi law, and his act roused the hopeful suspicion of his enemies that Germany is in deep internal trouble after a winter of near catastrophe.

The extra ordinary power to require absolute obedience from every German was voted at Hitler's demand by the reichstag after he had addressed its uniformed members in a speech strangely mixing his usual bombast and confident predictions of victory with a new undercurrent of anxiety.

One of those predictions was that Soviet Russia would be the decisive battle ground of the world conflict and that it would be a scene of Nazi triumph.

Conceded Catastrophe

But Hitler's demand came immediately after he had conceded to the reichstag that the German army survived a "threatening catastrophe" and suffered hardships for which the reich had been unprepared during the terrible cold of the Russian winter.

That the fuhrer, who became Germany's military as well as civil overlord during the winter crisis on the Soviet front, should now demand strengthening of his dictatorial power was hailed both in Britain and Russia as a sign that Nazidom's home front was cracking.

As broadcast by the Berlin radio, Hitler turned from his assurances that the next winter would find Germany ready on the Russian front and made this demand:

Begs For Authority

"For this purpose, I expect, however, one thing: That the nation entitles me to intervene and act myself, immediately, in every case wherein the service of the greater cause which decides on our existence does not the strictest, unreserved obedience is shown."

"I therefore beg of the German reichstag explicit confirmation that I am legally entitled to hold anyone to his duties or to sentence to cashiering or to oust from office any position anyone without consideration of his person. . . . who in my conscientious opinion does not fulfill his duties."

Excitement In Voice

Experienced radio listeners in London said they detected excitement in Hitler's voice when he dealt with this phase of his message.

As soon as he had finished, after one hour and one minute, Reichsmarshal Hermann Wilhelm Goering, president of the reichstag, re-emphasized Hitler's account of the staggering problems of the winter front in Russia, and asked the reichstag to "confirm" this statement:

"There can be no doubt that the fuhrer at the present time, when the German people is involved in a struggle for its existence, must be accorded the right asked by him to be fully empowered to do everything which serves to achieve victory or contributes to it."

Goering asked for a rising vote of consent and the Berlin radio said the reichstag, in whose midst were many in the field gray of Hitler's army, "rose as one man."

The War News . . .

Streamlined

WASHINGTON, April 27 (AP)—Secretary of State Hull said today it looked as if Adolf Hitler were beginning to take a desperate view of Germany's chances in the war.

The secretary of state declined comment on reports from Vichy that the French ambassador here had been instructed to protest against the landing of American troops on New Caledonia, French island possession in the Pacific now controlled by Free French forces.

The Chinese in Burma have improved their positions against the Japanese drive, the indications in the Australian theater of war point toward an imminent showdown with Japan, and United States guns on Corregidor are still answering the enemy in Bataan.

Those were the salient reports today from the broad zone of conflict in Asia and the Western Pacific.

CAIRO, April 27.—(AP)—British submarines, prowling the central Mediterranean, were credited today with sinking four Axis ships heavily laden with supplies intended for Marshal Erwin Rommel's stalemated armies in North Africa.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(AP)—The war department reported today that artillery fire from besieged Corregidor broke up a Japanese troop concentration on the nearby Bataan Peninsula in the Philippines and set afire a number of enemy motor trucks.

In the first communique covering fighting in the Philippines issued by the war department in five days, it was announced that Corregidor had experienced its 250th air raid alarm.

ROME, (From Italian Broadcasts), April 27.—(AP)—Italian newspapers interpreted Hitler's speech Sunday as a prelude to a great Axis offensive in comments published today.

Buildings were bombed at Mardyk, near Calais, from chimney top level and one pilot banked and climbed from anti-aircraft fire when he saw the red glow of fires in his mirror, the air ministry said.

At Le Touquet also, the attack was made from 50 feet by hurricanes splitting shells from four cannon.

Car Taken Sunday Found In Marshall

Charles Zieglsbein of La Monte, reported to police officers at 12:16 o'clock Sunday afternoon, that his brown 1935, Dodge sedan had been taken from in front of St. Paul's Lutheran church, 305 East Broadway, sometime between 10:45 o'clock in the morning and 12 noon. He said the keys were left in the car.

About 11:40 o'clock Sunday night Highway Patrolman Tomlin of Marshall, notified the Sedalia police officers that he had found the car in Marshall.

Cars Damaged; No One Is Injured

Two cars were damaged early Sunday morning on East Broadway, when one driven by Waldo Wheeler, of LaMonte collided with one driven by Byron Barber. Both were going east. No one was injured.

Married By Probate Judge

Miss Geneva Looney of Sweet Springs, and Charles Bauman of Marshall, were married in the recorder's office in the Pettis county court house this morning by Judge J. E. Smith of the probate court.

RAF Planes Batter Docks At Dunkerque

Rostock Blasted
For The Fourth
Consecutive Night

LONDON, April 27.—(AP)—British bombers gave the Baltic port of Rostock its fourth consecutive blasting last night, centering their attack on the great Heinkel aircraft factory, then with scarcely a pause in their non-stop offensive resumed raiding northern France in force today.

Fires set by the great four-motored planes in the past three nights still were burning at Rostock and guided the night raiders to their targets, the air ministry said.

Other swarms of RAF planes battered the docks at Dunkerque, laid mines in German-controlled waters and attacked enemy air-dromes in France and the over-run low countries.

One bomber encountered an enemy supply ship off the Danish coast and left it blazing. Another destroyed an enemy fighter over the North Sea.

"Heavy bombs were seen to burst in the (Heinkel) aircraft factory where fresh fires were started," the air ministry communique said of its Rostock raid. The Neptune submarine works previously had been blasted there, but there was no fresh account of damage to those works.

The Germans, implementing Hitler's threat of mass reprisal raids on Britain, returned to Bath last night in a three hour attack.

"Our night fighters and anti-aircraft defenders in this country were active," the air ministry said. Four Nazi bombers were shot down and "a number of others" were damaged. Only three British bombers and one fighter failed to return from the extensive exploits of the night.

Bomb Beach Resort

Hurricane fighters and bombers swept through the down channel mists to bomb and strafe the airdromes at Mardyk and Le Touquet, famous French beach resort near Boulogne.

Buildings were bombed at Mardyk, near Calais, from chimney top level and one pilot banked and climbed from anti-aircraft fire when he saw the red glow of fires in his mirror, the air ministry said.

At Le Touquet also, the attack was made from 50 feet by hurricanes splitting shells from four cannon.

Stop Sugar Sale For One Week

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(AP)—Retail sugar sales cease at midnight tonight when a one-week "freeze" sets in.

They will be resumed on Tuesday, May 5, on a rationing basis. Books of rationing stamps for individual consumers will permit the purchase of one pound of sugar in the period May 5-16; a second stamp will be valid for the May 17-30 period; the third for May 31-June 13, and the 4th for June 14-27. The amount allowed for each stamp after June 27 will be announced later.

Restaurants and other food services next month will be allotted 50 per cent of the amount of sugar they used in May, 1941. Bakers, confectioners, ice cream makers, dairy products companies, bottlers and other specialty industries will get 70 per cent of their May, 1941, supply.

Roosevelt Proposes 7-Point Program For Stabilization

Comments By Congressmen On President Roosevelt's Talk

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(AP)—Speedy congressional opposition arose today to President Roosevelt's proposal in his anti-inflation message to reduce the level at which price controls could be applied to farm products.

Rep. Cox (D-Ga.) quickly told his colleagues the message "does not go far enough"—particularly in regard to labor.

Senator Pepper (D-Fla.) and others who advocated the passage of restrictive labor legislation said they were willing to wait and see whether the president's proposal to stabilize wages would make such measures necessary.

Opposes Parity Level

Senator Bankhead (D-Ala.), a farm bloc leader, said he was flatly opposed to the president's suggestion that congress make parity the level at which price ceilings would be applied to farm products. Under existing law, no such ceilings may be ordered lower than 110 per cent of parity. Parity is a figure, usually based on 1909-14 farm income.

"I am opposed to the president's recommendation for reducing the formula on agricultural commodities from 110 to flat parity," Bankhead told reporters. "Such action would make it impossible for the farmers ever to get parity on the basis of fluctuating prices on the exchanges."

Additional Comment

Other comment: Vice President Wallace: "A comprehensive, well rounded program."

Speaker Rayburn: "I think that the subjects in the president's message are the things that must be done in order to prevent unreasonable prices and the cost of living and for an all out effort in the war. The message proves that all elements in our population are going to have to sacrifice and serve."

Democratic House Leader McCormack of Massachusetts: "A strong message of leadership presenting to the American people the necessary action now the domestic front to win the war. One thing is certain, no millionaires will be made out of this war. The control of the cost of living is very important in the winning of the war. All factors that enter into the cost of living are in the president's message."

Takes Steps Necessary To Prevent Living Costs From Rising; Calls For Heavy Taxes

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(AP)—President Roosevelt proposed the stabilization of wages and salaries of individuals today as part of a 7-point program designed to combat the upward spiral in the cost of living.

The program, outlined in a message to congress, was the administration's plan for gearing the economy of the nation and its people to emergency war conditions.

The chief executive also proposed heavy taxes, holding personal and corporate profits to reasonable levels, stabilization of prices received by farmers, discouraging credit and installment buying, rationing of all essential scarce commodities, and stimulation of the purchase of war bonds.

Showdown Is Possible In Pacific Area

Action Expected
From Japanese Who Have Been Passive

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, AUSTRALIA, April 27.—(AP)—Answering a sudden intensification of Japanese air activity, wide-ranging allied bombers lashed out again yesterday to blast enemy bases at Lae, New Guinea, and Bougainville, in the Solomon Islands, it was announced today.

At least four Japanese planes were destroyed in the raid on Lae—one in the air and three on the ground—a communique said.

Military quarters expressed belief that the continuing allied offensive might force a speedy showdown in this vital war theater.

Asserting that the Japanese could not afford to remain passive while the allies steadily built up their striking power in Australia, these quarters declared the enemy would have to adopt one of two courses:

1—Attack Australia directly, or
2—Attempt to capture all of New Guinea and the string of islands to the south and east, with a view to cutting American supply routes to Australia.

The landing of United States forces on the Free French island of New Caledonia, announced Saturday, was viewed as a move to thwart a possible attack upon New Zealand.

It was reported that the Japanese had been concentrating ships, men, supplies and planes in the Marshall islands in apparent preparation for some new operation.

In the event of a Japanese drive to the southeast from the Marshalls it was presumed that the United States fleet would be called upon to play an important role. Some observers saw the possibility of a great naval battle somewhere between Hawaii and New Zealand.

The possibility that the danger of direct attack upon Australia is still present was voiced by Army Minister Francis Forde in a statement at Canberra warning his countrymen against invasion.

Warns Against Invasion

Grounds for Forde's comment were seen in the reception which greeted a squadron of 24 Japanese bombers, escorted by fighters, which raided Darwin Saturday for the first time in three weeks.

An allied communique reported that eight of the enemy bombers and three fighters were shot down. Semi-official advisers said that United States pilots accounted for all of the planes destroyed.

The raiders were kept so high that their aim was inaccurate and the 500-pound bombs they dropped did little damage to their principal objective, the airport.

No change In Philippines.

Port Moresby, situated on the south shore of New Guinea facing Australia, was bombed Saturday and again yesterday, but damage here also was reported slight. A Japanese attack Saturday on Tulagan, in the Solomons, likewise caused "negligible damage," a communique said.

Allied communique reported no change in the Philippines during the week end. Enemy air attacks on Corregidor were said to be decreasing and only minor operations were reported on Mindanao and Panay, where a Japanese force was said to have been repulsed at San Remigio.

Married Saturday

Miss Anna E. Sublett and Melvin C. Bales, both of this city, were married at the home of Rev. Sidney E. Mabry, 213 East Second street by Mr. Mabry, Saturday.

Only taxes and stabilization of farm prices, Mr. Roosevelt said, require legislative action.

But he added in his message, read to the senate and house by clerks:

"I assure the congress that if the required objectives are not attained, and if the cost of living should continue to rise substantially, I shall so advise the congress, and shall ask for any additional legislation which may be necessary."

Mr. Roosevelt said there were obvious reasons for taking every step necessary to prevent a rise in the cost of living, which already has moved up about 15 per cent since the autumn of 1939 and which might soar "another 50 per cent or 90 per cent during the next year or two."

President's Objectives

These were the objectives which the president listed for congress:

"1. To keep the cost of living from spiraling upward, we must tax heavily, and in that process keep personal and corporate profits at a reasonable rate, the 'reasonable' being defined at a low level.

"2. We must fix ceilings on the prices which consumers, retailers, wholesalers and manufacturers pay for the things they buy; and ceilings on rents for dwellings in all areas affected by war industries.

"We must stabilize the remuneration received by individuals for their work.

"4. To keep the cost of living from spiraling upward, we must stabilize the prices received by growers for the products of their lands.

"5. We must encourage all citizens to contribute to the cost of winning this war by purchasing war bonds with their earnings instead of using earnings to buy articles which are not essential.

"6. We must ration all essential commodities of which there is a scarcity, so that they may be distributed fairly among consumers and not merely in accordance with financial ability to pay high prices for them.

"7. We must discourage credit and installment buying, and encourage the paying off of debts, mortgages, and other obligations; for this promotes savings, retards excessive buying and adds to the amount available to the creditors for the purchase of war bonds."

Radio Talk Later

Mr. Roosevelt was expected to discuss this broad program with the American people in a radio address later in the week. An announcement of the date was expected some time today.

The president, discussing stabilization of remuneration and he thought no legislation was required "under present circumstances." He added:

"I believe that stabilizing the cost of living will mean that wages in general can and should be kept at existing scales."

Then he gave a brief summary of the government's labor policy, for which congress has been waiting before taking any action on restrictive labor legislation.

Adjusting Disputes

Organized labor, Mr. Roosevelt said, has given up voluntarily its right to strike during the war.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON AND ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON, April 27—One of the Merry-Go-Rounders recently has taken a quick look see at a cross section of the U. S. A. from Kansas to Wisconsin and from South Carolina to New York.

The net result of that survey is that, contrary to some accusations made in Washington, we are convinced the American people are quite the contrary.

Unquestionably there are cases of complacency in some of the large cities, especially Chicago, where some of the people always have been lulled into isolationist do-nothingism. In New York City also there is some of the golden glitter, profiteering and the war-is-like-a-football-game attitude which featured Paris before its fall.

But in the rest of the country, so far as this observer could see this was not the case. The people are alarmed, worried, ready to buy bonds, economize on rubber, save tin, knit, eat less, send their boys away, and even be patient — which is the hardest thing of all to do.

In fact they would like to have a lot more to do. If anything they are impatient because they cannot do more.

But the one big thing they want is to see a little more clearly what is ahead for the country. Most of them, even including staunch Democrats, are considerably miffed with Roosevelt, but most of them, even including staunch Republicans, are willing to play along with Roosevelt during the war.

Shocked At Washington

They don't like his doddering cabinet. They are shocked at some of the scandals unearthed in Washington. They think Roosevelt is too soft hearted with his friends, and if anyone is complacent they think it is the president himself for keeping so much deadwood heaped up in Washington when it is time to get tough and use the pruning knife.

However, they are willing to go along with the president despite this very definite resentment — until the war is over. After that there is going to be the biggest political turnover in history — and the turnover probably will start next November, as far as the house of representatives is concerned.

There is a similar sentiment in regard to the British. Most people feel toward the British as one feels toward a cousin who is having a tough time and gotten you into a lot of trouble but you have to stick by him. In other words, the American people, as far as the Merry-Go-Round could ascertain, will fight for the British to the very end, but reserve the right to cuss them to the very end.

They know that the British have got to win, just as they know that Roosevelt has got to remain the leader of this nation. But they are looking for some very revolutionary changes in the old British empire when this war is over.

And of all Britishers, Churchill seems almost the least popular. south and midwest didn't particularly like his nude bathing at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., after his December visit with Roosevelt but much more than that people think Churchill exudes too much charm and they suspect Roosevelt is taken in by it.

However, despite all that, they will plug along and plug hard for both Roosevelt and Churchill. Only they don't want to be pampered. They don't want to be catered to. They don't want to be told anything but the truth. And most of all they don't want to be called complacent.

In brief the American people are ready to take it — the good and the bad — and make the best of it.

"I Knew Stalin"

A lot of people have now come back from Moscow to join the "I Know Stalin" club — Harry Hop-

WITH giant, turban-matching bow flaring over her jacket, she looks fresh and colorful in her new slacks suit. Glenderson designed the turban and bow set. They go just as well with a skirt — in fact the scarf is called the suit bow. It comes in many patterns of rayon crepe, jersey and taffeta.

kins, Admiral Standley, Averell Harriman, Bill Batt — and many are strong in their private praise of him.

But the person in Washington who probably knows Stalin best is the former Princess Mdivani, now Mrs. Dennis Conan Doyle, daughter-in-law of the famous English mystery writer. Mrs. Doyle is a Georgian, from South Russia, as Stalin is. Her family and his lived not far from each other.

"I am a White Russian and a refugee," says Mrs. Doyle, "but I can't help but admire Stalin's ability. People think he is complex, but that is because he is so simple. When he wants something he takes the straight line toward it. And he knows what he wants. That is his great strength. He does not go in for speeches. He does not like ceremony. He is simple and sincere. He is a yes or no man."

Note: Because his wife knew Russia well, young Conan Doyle offered to go to Russia for the British government in any capacity. But the staid old British foreign office had the jitters — just as it did when Sir Stafford Cripps first went to Russia on his own and was so successful that the British later had to appoint him ambassador.

Guns For Uncle Sam

Here's a suggestion from William N. Bemis, Ashburnham, Mass., on how World War veterans can contribute toward winning the war.

Recently the war department appealed to hunters to contribute any high-powered rifle they may have to the army. Bemis' proposal goes this one better — namely that veterans turn over to the army 45 automatics and any other military weapons they took home from the last war.

A veteran, Bemis sent to The Washington Merry-Go-Round an automatic he used for ten months while in the service with a request that it be given the army. Army ordnance officers accepted the gift with warm thanks and expressed the hope that many other veterans would follow his patriotic example.

So if you have a gun of military value send it to the office of the Chief of Ordnance, War Department, Washington, D. C.

What Are Volunteers

Chief point of controversy during the House Naval Affairs Committee hearings on the bill to create a women's auxiliary to the naval reserve was the age limit of the volunteers.

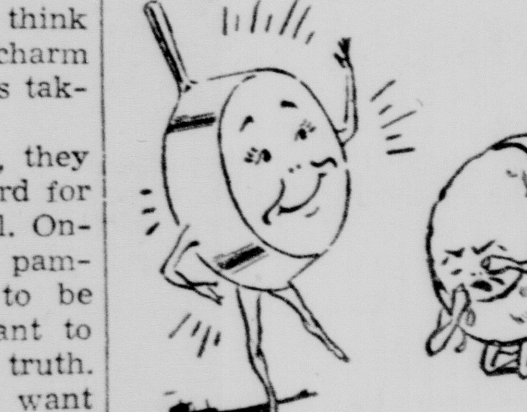

Representative Melvin Maas of Minnesota, author of the legislation, favored a minimum age of 17 but others, including Representative Joseph B. Shannon of Missouri, disagreed.

Finally Committee chairman, Carl Vinson rapped for order. "I like 17," he said, which brought another uproar.

When quiet was restored, Vinson explained that he thought 20 years was probably a better age for the girl volunteers, who will have to drive motor cars and do other strenuous jobs as well as office work for the navy.

Frantic Weekend

by Edmund Fancott

Copyright, 1942, NEA Service, Inc.

THE STORY: Peggy Lorton's weekend guests at his Canadian country place have had two surprises. One was to learn that Fay Hanson, beautiful Montreal socialite, is the famous night club singer, Gay Randall. The other is when Baldy Brien, Fay's manager, barges in to take her back to Broadway. Peggy Mack, 17, starts a campaign despite her older sister Myra's protests. Peggy plans to win Fay away from Nigel Monks, her brother Michael, and to use Baldy to further her own "career."

"DAMES ARE CRAZY"

CHAPTER XI

LOW and grumbling were the mutterings that stirred the quiet of the lounge room as Peggy and Myra sat outside on the veranda.

"Dames . . . hmph!" growled the voice indignantly. "Crazy. Plain crazy."

Peggy jumped up, impatient to pursue her plans for the morning, but she slowed her stride as she entered the room and her voice was casual and disinterested.

"Something biting you, Baldy?" She popped a strip of bacon into her mouth and foraged at the sideboard for another piece of toast.

"Don't call me Baldy," she growled. "Squirt like you oughta be more respectful to her elders."

"So dames are crazy," mused Peggy, dropping into the chair next to him.

"They are. Where's Fay?" "Down by the lake I expect," said Peggy. "What has she done now?"

"It ain't what's she done. It's what she's going to do that's got me worried. And if she don't make up her mind soon we'll miss that afternoon plane to New York."

Peggy's eyes widened as she gazed at the little man.

"You're not going back so soon?" "Listen, baby. Even five minutes ago isn't soon enough for me."

"Gee!" said Peggy, her eyes limpid with what looked like disappointment. "Just when I was thinking we'd have a really interesting man."

Baldy Brien returned her gaze, completely unimpressed. "Oh yeah?" he said.

Peggy offered to help him in his search for Fay. He refused the offer but found that she had the persistence of a mosquito. Not unlike one, Peggy was quite aware that every man has a vulnerable point somewhere.

She showed him the way to the lake and found Nigel disconsolately lying in the sun on the wharf. "Hullo. Have any of you seen Fay?"

"We were just looking for her," said Peggy. She realized that if

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Everlasting Punishment" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 3, 1942.

Golden Text: Psalms 9:18. The Lord is known by the judgments which he executeth: the wicked is sundered in the work of his own hands.

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "... he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting" (Gal. 6:8).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The design of Love is to reform the sinner. If the sinner's punishment here has been insufficient to reform him, the good man's heaven would be a hell to the sinner. Divine Science reveals the necessity of sufficient suffering, either before or after death, to quench the love of sin. Escape from punishment is not in accordance with God's government, since justice is the handmaid of mercy" (pp. 35, 36).

Your Clothes... And The War!

Because of the necessity for all out production of War essentials our Government has asked us to conserve all woollens and have in fact ordered civilian clothes restrictions such as no patch pockets, no cuffs, no belts, no pleats, no extra pair of pants, etc. Women's clothes also will be made much plainer and without frills.

What does this mean to each of us? It means first that it is our patriotic duty to conserve and help our Government and second our own selfish interests demand that we make what we have do us as long as possible.

The best possible way to conserve woollens is to have them Dry Cleaned regularly but also THEY MUST BE PROTECTED AGAINST MOTHS. Millions of garments are destroyed by moths yearly thereby necessitating the useless purchase of millions of yards of wool. We therefore take pleasure, now more than ever, in offering the following service which is absolutely Free:

ALL WOOLENS (Knits and Boncles excepted) DRY CLEANED BY US ARE TREATED WITH MONITE AND GUARANTEED AGAINST MOTH DAMAGE FOR A PERIOD OF SIX MONTHS.

The above service and guarantee will definitely solve your moth problem, for by having your clothes cleaned regularly by us they will be constantly INSURED against moth damage and incidentally the Dry Cleaning itself will prolong the life of the garments.

Society and Clubs

Miss Lola M. Gott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Gott of Cross Roads, Mo., became the bride of Mr. Raymond E. Gerard of Kansas City, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Gerard of Sedalia, in a ceremony performed by the Rev. Father A. J. Brunswick at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the rectory of Sacred Heart church in the presence of relatives and close friends.

Their attendants were Mrs. Eugene Herrick, a cousin of the bride, and Mr. Oscar Steele of Kansas City.

The bride wore a medium blue crepe suit with navy blue accessories and a corsage of Gloria roses, and her attendant was attired in a dusty blue dress worn with navy accessories. Her flowers were talisman roses.

Mrs. Gerard is a graduate of Ava high school and attended Draughon's Business college at Springfield. For the last two and a half years she has been employed in the office of the Taystee Bread company.

Mr. Gerard graduated from Sacred Heart school and Smith-Cotton high school here. He is now employed at the North American bomber plant in Kansas City, Kas. Mr. and Mrs. Gerard are at home at 3800 The Paseo, Kansas City, Mo.

Immediately following the ceremony the bridegroom's parents entertained with a wedding dinner at their home, 1503 South Vermont avenue.

Seated at the table with the bridal couple were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Herrick, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Steele and son Bobby, and Mr. and Mrs. Gerard and their daughter, Theodora.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Green, former Sedalians, have returned to their home in Moberly after spending the week-end in Sedalia. While here they were guests at the annual spring formal at the Country club Saturday night and at several smaller private parties.

An enjoyable day was spent Sunday when a large number of relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hinken, 2100 East Broadway, to participate in the celebration of their twentieth wedding anniversary.

At the noon hour a dinner to which all contributed was served to the following:

Mr. and Mrs. Hinken and seven children, all of the home, Ruby,

Nelson, Bernice, Kenneth, Billy, Martha and Dean, Henry Ditzfeld, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gault and Dorothy Mae, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kurtz and Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kurtz and Virgil, Mr. and Mrs. George Meyer and Opal, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Ditzfeld and Elaine, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ditzfeld and Pearl Catherine, Wesley Ditzfeld and Ruth, J. W. George, Vickie, Viola and Dora Jane, Mrs. Walter Burgener and Danny, Miss Virginia Glenn, Miss Bessie Woodward, Miss Maurine Bucholz, Eldon Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Lois Ringen.

Mrs. D. T. Abell opened her home on West Broadway for the April meeting of Osage Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. She was assisted in entertaining by her daughter, Miss Alice Harris, and the following hostesses: Mesdames Elza Berry, William H. Powell, and Misses Jessie Blair, Maurine Harris, and Laura McCluney. The home was decorated with brilliant tulips and snapdragons, and it presented a most inviting setting for the spring meeting.

The Regent, Mrs. Frank S. Leach presided and an enjoyable afternoon was spent by all. A special guest was Mrs. H. S. Dibern, of Milan, Ill., a member of the Fort Armstrong Chapter D. A. R. and Rock Island. Mrs. Dibern is the mother of Mrs. H. E. Lindstrom, who is the efficient Secretary of Osage Chapter.

The Chapter has been invited by the State D. A. R. historian, Mrs. Claude Rowland, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Frederick Waller, of the National D. A. R. historian, of Louisville, Ky., to exhibit their historic scrap book at the National Continental Congress which will be held at Chicago the first week in May. Miss Jessie Browneller was chairman of the committee that made this book of unusual beauty and historic value.

Will Attend Congress
Miss Lelia Shortridge, state chairman for the junior citizenship clubs, will represent Osage Chapter at the Congress in Chicago, and will leave for that city on May 2nd.

Mrs. Arthur Hoffman, chairman of the society's student loan fund, read a most interesting letter from Eugene Hilton, who is attending Engineering School at Rolla.

The address of the day was given by Miss Eunice Cousley, and her subject covered the interesting theme of historic trees. Miss Cousley transported the chapter on a "magic carpet," as it were, to many sacred places where beautiful trees are memorialized by historic deeds and circumstances. She spoke of the Cambridge Elm, a tree famous since the time of George Washington. A scion of this tree was given by Osage Chapter to the Sedalia Public Library, and today it is growing nicely on its east lawn. There have been one hundred trees memorialized to George Washington throughout the country. Miss Cousley said that one invariable element of greatness was a love of nature.

Tree Over 150 Years Old
The David Ward King silver maple is a famous landmark. David King was known as the father of good roads. This tree is over 150 years old.

There is a wonderful peach tree called Hal-berta Giant that has been propagated at the Stark Nursery at Louisiana.

The James Coffee tree, at the old James homestead near St. Joseph, is 90 feet tall and 16½ feet in diameter. Miss Cousley spoke of the giant redwood trees of California, the largest of which is 36 feet in diameter. The Ball Cypress was mentioned as a most interesting tree and Tower Grove Park, St. Louis, is made famous by many varieties of this classification. The great Pershing Yellow Cottonwood at Laclede, is 150 years old and 160 feet tall. It is one of the largest trees in Missouri. The huge "Hickory Council Tree", over 300 years old at St. Genevieve is historic. The Indians gathered under this tree in the early days for ceremonies and counsel. The Daniel Boone Judgment Tree near Columbia, was made famous by Daniel Boone, who held court under its spreading branches. His decisions were never questioned. He always said he just wanted to know the truth.

Lone Jack Tree
The Lone Jack tree stood in early days, a giant tree all alone on the prairie. Ultimately around it grew up a village which was appropriately named after this tree, "Lone Jack", which is near Kansas City.

The Hawthorne tree or shrub is the Missouri flower, and a beautiful tree it is, with its pure white blossoms. There are 200 varieties scattered in different parts of the world, but in Missouri 125 varieties are found. On the capitol grounds in Jefferson City are fifty species. After a hundred years of statehood the Hawthorne was made the state flower in 1923.

This fine address evoked an interesting discussion of famous trees that the guests had in their travels.

After the program dainty refreshments were served and the guests adjourned to meet in May at the country home of Mrs. Roy Petty.

Mrs. Ray Lacey, 1112 West Seventh street, entertained with a birthday party at her home on April 21. The guests, who have "round-robin" birthday celebrations contributed to a 1 o'clock luncheon.

The table was decorated with spring flowers, snapdragons predominating. The hostess used cellophane umbrellas as place cards and there were boutonniers of carnations and ferns at each place.

Bridge was played during the afternoon with Mrs. James Hosford winning first honors and Mrs. Ed Bybee second award.

The guests were: Mrs. C. A. Waggoner, Mrs. T. E. Gasperson, Mrs. Harold Teeters, Mrs. Mary Blair, Mrs. William Hosford, Mrs. James Hosford and Mrs. Bybee.

Mrs. Lacey was presented with a set of crystal sherberts by the group.

Confesses To Abusing Girl

Father Of Two Children Admits He Went Wild

PUEBLO, Colo., April 27.—(AP)—A 26-year-old father, spirited through an angry crowd, was held in the state prison today after Police Chief J. Arthur Grady announced he had confessed torturing and slaying Alice Porter, 16-year-old Pueblo high school girl. Grady termed it "the most gruesome confession in my 38 years on the force."

Missing since Wednesday night, Miss Porter's body was found yesterday, badly mutilated, in a cistern at an abandoned ranch house.

A few hours later police arrested Donald H. Fearn, father of a 10-day-old daughter and a small son, upon learning that a garage-man had towed Fearn's car from the vicinity of the ranch last Thursday.

Cruelly Abused Her

Chief Grady said that after questioning, Fearn related in a signed statement that he had stripped the girl, beaten her, heated wires and applied them to her back and abdomen, raped her, knocked her in the head with a hammer, and then shot her twice with a .32 caliber pistol.

While Fearn was questioned, Grady said a crowd gathered about the police station and jail. The man was taken to the penitentiary at Canon City for safekeeping before Grady announced details of the confession.

Just Went Wild

The police chief said Fearn related in the signed statement that the girl disrobed "voluntarily" after he had beaten her and started to tear off her clothing. He then taped her mouth with adhesive, taped her hands across her chest, heated wires in a fireplace and applied them to her nude torso, the confession stated.

"I just went wild, I guess," he was quoted as saying.

The girl was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin D. Porter. She disappeared after leaving a friend's house to walk two blocks to her home.

The filing of any formal charge against Fearn probably would be delayed until after an inquest, Grady said.

Party Enjoyed By Employees

A number of the Smithton creamery employees enjoyed a wiener roast at Arator school Friday night. Misses Louise, Lorene and Ruth Hoermann and Mylin Smith were members of the committee in charge. The young people enjoyed playing games on the Arator school grounds while the parents enjoyed the evening about the camp fire. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Bremer, Gene and Lois, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bremer and daughter, Miss Alice McBride, Miss Alice M. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. August Oehrke and son Gail, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Luce and sons, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Eddy and son Jimmie, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Othel Griffith and daughters, Misses Louise, Lorene and Ruth Hoermann and Glen Hoermann, Misses Margaret and Roberta Dewitt, Miss Wanda Lee Pace, Barbara Pace, Mrs. Shelby Kahrs, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wagenknecht and children, Dick Eichoff, Wray Goode and Miss Agnes Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Young and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young.

After returning to town the employees joined other friends who went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hotsenpiller and gave Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hotsenpiller, an old time charivari. Mr. and Mrs. Hotsenpiller were married April 17th.

Bataan—Bataan—And Immortality

I little dreamed, as you sat reading
With such a quiet, unobtrusive air,
Sprawled in that old armchair—
I little dreamed that there,
There in your shabby sweater, with your tumbled hair,
Your quiet ways and gentle breeding,
True splendor stood beside you, called you forth,
Clothed you in light and in magnificence . . .
Nor did I hear that trumpet notes of glory
Were singing through the stillness of the room,
Calling to you, who seemed lost in your story . . .
I did not dream that Fate could hardly wait
To crown you with imperishable laurel . . .
I little dreamed
That your old sweater with the shabby hole
Through which your elbow stole
A cloak of glory was, nor that it caught
Within its broken strands high destiny . . .
I could not know or see
Bataan—Bataan—and immortality.

The poem above was written by a father after his son had died on Bataan. The life story of this American soldier, carried below, is from the student paper of Exeter Academy in New Hampshire. It is a story of heroism that will be told many times—with different names and places—before we win this war.

Lieut. John Hamilton Drummond, Jr., spent four years at Phillips Exeter Academy . . . He was voted the boy most likely to succeed and selected by Headmaster Lewis Perry as the senior who had done most for Exeter. He attended Princeton University, graduating in 1936. . . . He was a member of the 150-pound football team for three years, where his work in the line earned him the nickname of "Bulldog". . . . He was a member of the R. O. T. C., graduating with a commission as second lieutenant. Volunteering for duty overseas, he sailed for the Philippines on Oct. 4, 1941, and was assigned to the 51st Field Artillery. His last communication with his home was a radiogram sent on Christmas Day, 1941, from San Pablo. He gave his life for his country during an air raid outside a small town in northern Luzon at noon on Dec. 31, 1941. He was hit in the chest by a shell fragment and died instantly while attempting to get his men under cover. Colonel Searight and Captain Loupe, his commanding officers, placed above his soldier grave the inscription: "As an officer would, protecting his men for his country."

QUOTE—"From All Directions"

Japanese broadcasts state that the bombers attacking key industrial centers in recent raids seemed to come from all directions and this map illustrates how the attacking planes might have been based to accomplish this mission of destruction over the Jap homeland. (NEA TELEMAT).

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
Wide World Sports Columnist
NEW YORK, April 27.—Joe DiMaggio (CQ) the leading hitter of the Los Angeles city college baseball team, keeps a picture of Joe DiMaggio of the Yankees in his locker—which shows the kid has ideas as well as a name. . . . In the hullabaloo over the Penn relays, the Philadelphia papers didn't overlook another important occasion. Under the heading "History Is Made", they related in front page boxes that the A's and Phils had won ball games on the same day.

Moonlight Serenade

When George Trautman, American Association president, is married to Mrs. Jane Asbury of Valdosta, Tenn., sometime within the next couple of weeks, a fox-hound named Moonlight should get an invitation. . . . They became acquainted when Mrs. Asbury visited Jackson, O., for the national fox hunt a couple of years ago. . . . Moonlight, the dog, got lost and Mrs. Asbury went out to help find him. . . . When the hunt took them near Trautman's cabin, he joined the search.

Today's Guest Star:
Carl Bell, Northwest Arkansas Times (Fayetteville): "You might say that Churchill Downs, scene of the Kentucky derby, is the world's chumping off place."

Monday Matinee
Ziggy Sears, the umpire, claims the only teams whose pitchers know how to stand on the rubber are Cincinnati and the White Sox—both coaches by former catchers. . . . Ted Kara, former Idaho U. boxer who now coaches at Southwestern Louisiana Institute, volunteered to fight at the Louisiana state penitentiary the other day when he went there as a spectator and one of the scrappers couldn't go on. . . . Casey Stengel, figuring out where he stood in the 45-65 draft registration, remarked: "I'm ashamed to tell it, but I never yet hit a quail, so how could I hit a Jap?"

Annual Spring Smith-Cotton Football Game

Seniors Play Their Last Game Against
The 1942 Squad

The annual Senior-Varsity football game played at Smith-Cotton high school will take place Tuesday afternoon on the high school athletic field. It will climax the spring football practice at Smith-Cotton under the direction of Coach Jimmy Obermiller, and assistants Sillers, Dow and Rogers. In the game for the first time in the history of Smith-Cotton the "V" formation plays will be used. The past several weeks the new players for the Tiger squad have been drilling hard to learn the new formation play to put it into use this fall.

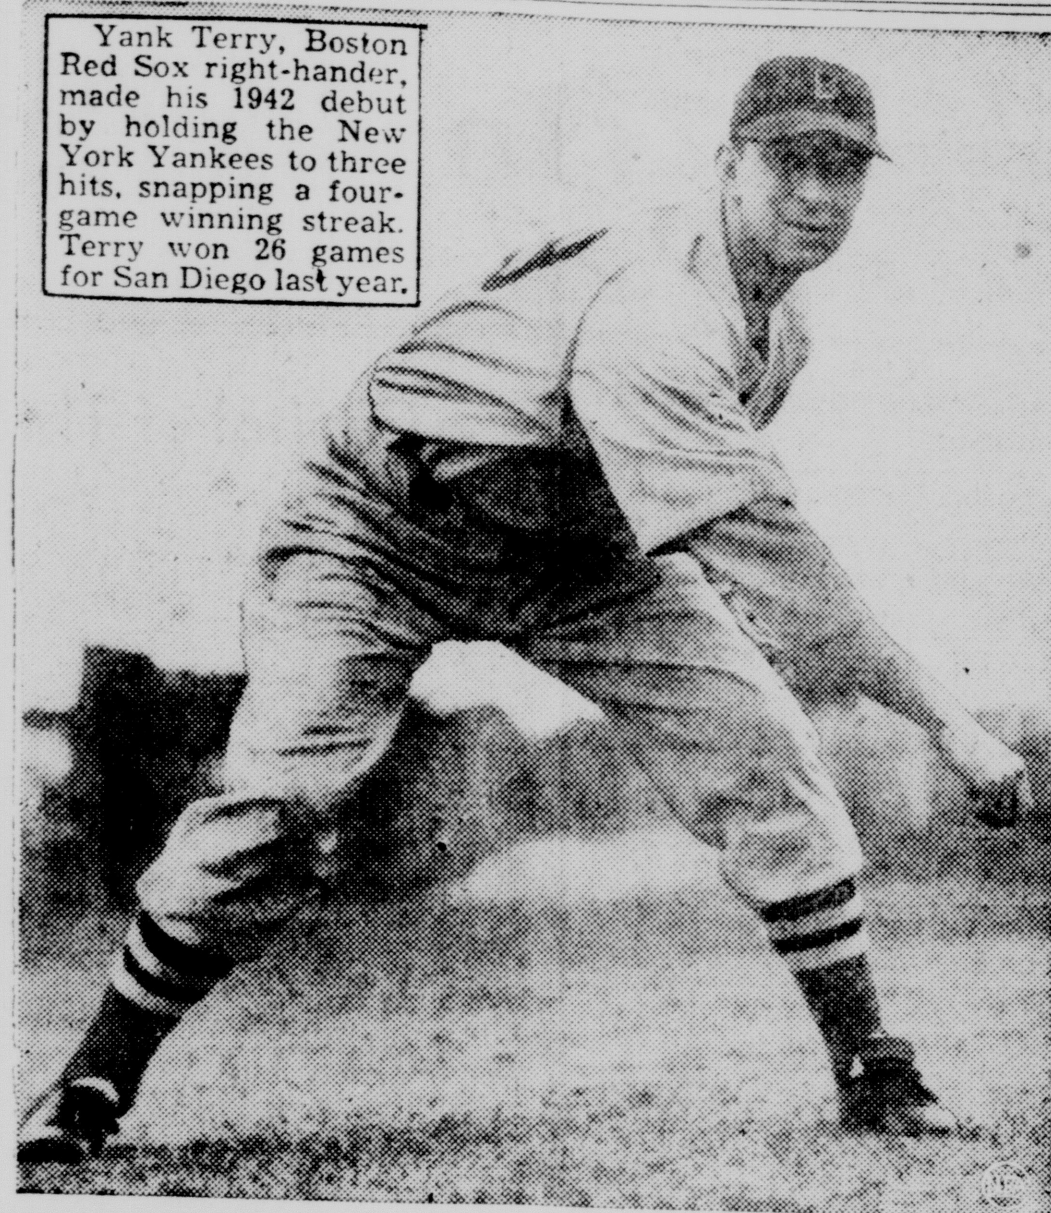

The coaching staff in looking over the 1942 material is confident Smith-Cotton will have one of the strongest aggregations it has had in several years.

The 1942 Tigers

Members of the squad who have been showing up well are: Lauren Williams, Tommy Bast, Gordon Capes, Tommy Gardner, and Kenneth Lutgen in the back field, while in the line the boys are Virgil Landers, Otis Thomas, William White, Bobby Biggs, Harry Smith, Archie Allen, Ralph Harrington. In center Robert Parker has been outstanding in the spring work.

The following boys will make up the Senior squad: Carl Russell, John Rissler, J. B. Woodward, T. J. Carver, Harold DeJarnett, Lewis Wheeler, Bob Green, Bobbie Boothe, Bob Bothwell, Jack Delph, Charles Wingate, Frank Mier, Dewey Stephens, Jim Anderson, Herb Young, Bob Vilmer, and Bob Cain.

The lineup: Underclassmen; Thomas and Landers, ends; White and Biggs, tackles; Allen and Harrington, guards and Parker center. Backfield, Lutgen, quarterback, Bast and Capes halfbacks and Gardner, full back.

Seniors: Russell and Rissler, ends; DeJarnett and Green, tackles; Boothe and Relph, guards; Wingate, center. Backfield, Anderson, quarterback; Stevens and Young, half backs and Vilmer, fullback.

The game is sponsored by the "L" club and will start at 3 o'clock.

Five Die In Plane Crash

KANSAS CITY, April 27.—(P)—A civilian-manned, two-motored bomber crashed in a test flight yesterday less than a mile from Municipal Air Terminal. The crew of five was killed.

The dead: Raymond B. Quick, 44, chief test pilot of the Fairfax (Kansas City, Kas.) North American Aviation plant.

Oran Basil Sims, 38, co-pilot. Charles F. Frederick, Jr., 28, Joseph R. Peacher, 26; Edward K. Krakora, 21, test flight engineers. The B-25D type plane crashed and burned in nearby railroad yards a few minutes after takeoff. Witnesses said the craft never rose above 150 or 200 feet.

"The cause of the accident will be determined. From it we shall clear the way to avoid another," a company memorandum to employees read today. "Five soldiers of production have given their lives to their country no less courageously than though they fought at Corregidor."

Why buy a Pig in a Poke?

No, we're not comparing our nice, shiny used cars to grunting porkers—fact is, there's not a squeal in a yardful of our smooth-running bargains. We're just pointing out that it doesn't make good sense to buy a used car from anyone you're not absolutely sure of. You've probably heard it said that a used car is as good as the reputation of the dealer who sells it. If you buy on that basis you'll be around to see us sooner or later—'cause we're proud of both our reputation AND our used cars!

Therefore, he said, all stabilization or adjustment of wages will be handled by the war labor board machinery which he said had been accepted generally by labor and industry for adjustment of all disputes.

After remarking that strikes were at a minimum, the president said that in all fairness, existing contracts between employers and employees must be carried through to their expiration date, with existing machinery for handling labor disputes continuing to consider inequalities and the elimination of sub-standards of living.

Most workers in munition industries, he said, are working far more than 40 hours a week and should continue to be paid at time and a half for overtime. Otherwise, he said, their weekly pay envelopes would be reduced.

This apparently, was his stand on efforts in congress to abandon the law requiring payment of time and a half for hours worked in excess of 40 a week.

Need All Embracing Program
Only an all-embracing program will suffice to keep the cost of living in check, Mr. Roosevelt said.

"When the cost of living spirals upward week after week and month after month," the president said, "people as a whole are bound to become poorer, because the pay envelope will then lag behind the rising retail prices. The price paid for carrying on the war by the government and, therefore by the people, will increase by many billions if prices go up."

Then, recalling the old saying that "that which goes up must always come down," the president spoke of the hardships and heartaches in the years after the last war. He did not intend after this one, he said, to present the "same disastrous situation" to the brave men fighting our battles today in all parts of the world.
